

Sundays @ the J with George and Friends

presented by the JCC

Spend your Sunday afternoon listening to the works of accomplished local authors.

Sunday, May 18 1:30 p.m. — 3:30 p.m.

- ◆ Liz Howort has taught poetry at the elementary, high school and college level. Turning the Forest Fertile is her first chapbook (Toadlily Press). Her work has been published or is forthcoming in The Seneca Review, L Magazine, The Round, Storyscape, the Best American Poetry blog and elsewhere. She serves on the board of Frequency Writers.
- ◆ Janlori Goldman is a poet and teacher. Her chapbook, Akhmatova's Egg, was recently published by Toadlily Press as part of its Quartet Series. Her first full-length manuscript has been a finalist in a number of contests, and her poems have appeared in Mead, The Cortland Review, Gwarlingo, Connotation Press, Mudlark, Calyx, Contrary, Rattle, The Sow's Ear, Gertrude and The Mom Egg. In 2013, Gerald Stern chose her poem 'At the Cubbyhole Bar' for the Raynes Prize. She is a writing mentor at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, and teaches at Columbia University. She received a MFA from Sarah Lawrence College.
